The Knights of Columbus of Southern Colorado invite you to experience the new film from Ignatius Press, IGNACIO de LOYOLA: SOLDIER, SINNER, SAINT. Based on the life of St. Ignatius of Loyola, the founder of the Jesuits, the film tells the inspiring story of the torturous struggle he faced on the road to holiness! Screenings will be on Monday, April 24th, at 6 pm and Saturday, April 29th, at 10 am at the Rawlings Library InfoZone Theater. A discussion on St. Ignatius and Ignatian Spirituality will immediately follow the April 29th screening. Tickets are available at Angels of Hope Gift Shop (Midtown) and the Diocese Pastoral Center (101 North Greenwood) for a $5.00 donation.

SEEING CHRIST CLEARLY

We start today looking through the portals of Jerusalem, seeing crowds of people, cheering and waving palm branches in the air. The whole atmosphere is one of joy, triumph, and celebration. We can get distracted or enthralled by the scene, and not see clearly the features of Jesus as he enters. But our readings from Isaiah and Paul's letter to the Philippians clarify his features for us. He is the Suffering Servant, meek and mute before his captors and persecutors; he is the very image of the unseen God, yet will not clutch at equality with God before he endures his final confrontation in humility. Isaiah and Paul help us "behold the Lamb of God" before we hear the story of his final and greatest confrontation. It is important that we see Christ clearly before we hear the account of his passion, for we—his Body through baptism, the church—now bear his face. We must, with him, enter into this time of trial so we can, also with him, enter into his final triumph.
