Diocesan Prayer for Vocations

Almighty God, ever faithful to your word, you have promised to send us shepherds and leaders after your own heart to gather and guide us. We thank you for those priests and religious who are persevering in their vocations, and ask you to send them an increase in fellow laborers with Christ for the salvation of souls. Mary, Queen of Vocations, Pray for us. St. Therese of the Child Jesus, patroness of our diocese, Pray for us.

An Invitation! The Little Flower Sewing Group is offering classes on how to crochet or knit at 1:00 pm in the St. Joseph Room on August 17th, 24th and 31st. Lessons are FREE and supplies will be provided. No children please. For more information, call Rose @ 545-9223.

PRAYER FOR OUR NATION

God our Father, Giver of life, we entrust the United States of America to Your loving care. You are the rock on which this nation was founded. You alone are the true source of our cherished rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Reclaim this land for Your glory and dwell among Your people.

Send Your Spirit to touch the hearts of our nation's leaders. Open their minds to the great worth of human life and the responsibilities that accompany human freedom. Remind Your people that true happiness is rooted in seeking and doing Your will.

Through the intercession of Mary Immaculate, Patroness of our land, grant us the courage to reject the "culture of death." Lead us into a new millennium of life. We ask this through Christ Our Lord.

Amen.

Fatima: 2017 marks the 100th anniversary of the Apparitions at Fatima. In the century since three shepherd children first saw a woman clothed in white the message of Fatima has only grown more urgent. The Movie, The 13th Day, will be shown on Sunday, August 13th, at 2:00 pm at the Rawlings Library Ryals Special Event Room.

EYEWITNESSES

Today, the Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord, is a day of eyewitness accounts. The first, a vision reported by the prophet Daniel, was well known to Jesus and his apostles. The vision account was written in quite mystical and figurative language. It is a vision of heaven, powerful and memorable. There are flames of fire, burning wheels, the Ancient One, and a Son of Man. Clearly, Daniel saw something. But was it a dream? Was it real? Was it merely a clever myth?

Peter wants no such confusion about his vision! We are told in Matthew’s Gospel what he and his friends James and John saw when they went up on the mountain with Jesus one day. Jesus warned the three witnesses to tell no one until “the Son of Man has been raised from the dead” (Matthew 17:9). Lest readers of one of the Gospels discount the story or simply write it off as a pious myth, Peter gives his own account of the Transfiguration of Jesus in his second letter to the church. He writes with authority, as an eyewitness. He reports this message from God concerning Jesus: “This is my Son, my beloved, with whom I am well pleased,” and he assures us that the message is “altogether reliable” (2 Peter 1:17, 19).
